

'Leaping Lena' Arrives at Ft. Monmouth
